MIDNIGHT MISSILES.

LATEST FORFIGN AND DOMESTIC NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

More About the St. Petersburg Explosion, and Something About Another One.

LONDON, Feb. 19.—No further news has been received here concerning the attempt to assassinate the Imperial family of Russia by the explosion of a mine under the Winter Palace. The Morning Post says: "We learn that the Czarina was asleep in another wing of the Palace at the time of the catastrophe, and was not disturbed by the explosion, of which she still remains in ignorance.

LATER.

The Daily News, in its second edition this afternoon, publishes the following dispatch from its St. Petersburg correspondent: "Information which has come to my knowledge establishes the connection between the late attempt upon the life of the Czar and the arrest of some forty, inmates of the Winter Palace on Monday last, the day before the explosion.

Comments on the Explosion.

LONDON, Feb. 19.—The Times this morning in commenting on the explosion in Winter Palace, at St. Petersburg, says: "The central authority of the Czar must be upheld if that order is to be maintained which is indispensable to the condition of progress. Conspiracies like this must be punished with sufficient severity to crush them, but if in conjunction with these necessary measures the Czar has pursued a course of gradual reforms, he may entertain a reasonable hope that these horrors will pass away."

The London and also the continental journals unite in expressing horror at the plot to kill the Imperial family of Russia, in which it is believed some of the employees of the Palace were concerned.

Another Explosion.

PEORIA, Ill., Feb. 19.—A terriffic boiler explosion occurred at Barton & Babcock's distillery, below this city, last evening. Two men were instantly killed, and two fatally and three seriously injured.

LOLDON, Feb. 19.—A Dublin dispatch to the Pall Mall Gazette this evening says: "accounts from the country during the past few days have been more hopeful and are summed up in these words: much suffering but no starvation, except in far off islands, to which relief is being sent without delay or stint.

In parts of Donegal county also, want is great, but the Dublin Mansion House Fund has been made peremtorily available in that quarter. Meanwhile agrarian agitation may be said to have completely ended. Attempts to get up meetings of the sort recently have all failed.

Can't Do Without The St. Patrick Celebration.

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—At a stormy meeting of the convention of Irish societies, held last night, it was decided to hold the parade on St. Patrick's Day, instead of devoting the money used for that purpose to the suffering poor in Ireland.

Foreign Flashes.

The prisoner was overcome at the announcement and wept bitterly. The penalty for the offence is one year in prison and $250 fine.

Death of Rev. Dr. Jeter.

RICHMOND, Feb. 18.—Rev. Dr. J. B. Jeter, one of the most prominent Baptist clergyman in the South, died in this city to day, aged 78 years. He was a native of Bedford county, Va., had been pastor of several churches in different parts of the State, was at one time editor of the Religious Herald, and held many positions of prominence in connection with various institutions of learning in the Southern States. His death has caused profound sorrow in this community.

A Man who was Afraid of the Masons.

CHICAGO, Feb. 17.—W. E. Guernsey, a passenger on the train from the West, yesterday evening threw himself under a car at the Desplaines Street Viaduct and was so badly crushed that he died in a few hours. On a leaf of a memorandum book found in his pocket was this entry:

"My brother-in-law's name is Frank A. Dean's, Wilkesbarre, Pa. I killed myself because I knew the Masons would when we got to Chicago.

W. E. G."

He was from San Francisco, and was evidently of unsound mind.

ELMIRA, N. Y., Feb. 17.—C. M. Beecher, Jr., son of C. M. Beecher, night editor of the Elmira Advertiser, commit ed suicide last evening in this city by hanging himself in his father's barn. He was about 25 years of age, and a printer, employed in the Gazette office here. It is supposed that disappointment in love was the cause of the act.

Lenox Dead.

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—James Lenox, founder of the Lenox Library, is dead. He was one of New York's best known and most liberal citizens, and was for a long time president of the Bank of Commerce.

A Correction.

Columbia's Indebtedness.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Feb. 18.—The General Assembly at the request of the Mayor and Aldermen has passed an act authorizing the refunding of the entire indebtedness of the city bonded and floating at face value by an issue of thirty years bonds bearing 2 per cent. of interest during the first decade, three next and four the last, coupons to be receivable for all taxes and debts due to the city except weather rents. The city creditors will accept the terms of the act.

The Tramps.

WESTON AND O'LEARY TO WALK FOR $5,000.

CHICAGO, Feb. 17.—O'Leary, the pedestrian, has to-day accepted a challenge from Weston to walk him six days for $5,000, at San Francisco, commencing March 8th.

NINETEEN OF THEM AT CINCINNATI.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 17.—The second day of the eighty four-hour go-as-you-please match commenced at noon today. Carey did not appear on the track, but the other nineteen all started. The scores of the four leaders at 12:30 p. m. were: Burns, 69 miles; Arthur 69; Guyon, 69; O'Brien, 68. The lowest man is Worthington, 34 miles.

BLOWER BROWN STILL LEADING.

LONDON, Feb. 17.—Blower Brown still leads in the six-day go-as-you-please for the English championship. At midnight Brown scored, 124 miles; Day, 95; Hazael, 98. The walk continues to attract large crowds of spectators. Brown is a great favorite in the pools, and large odds are offered on his retaining the belt. Both Hazael and Day rested frequently yesterday, while Brown plodded steadily onward, and at the close of the day had secured a decided lead on his opponents. Hazael suffers from a blistered foot, and Day appears to be out of condition. Brown's condition is excellent, and one bet has been made of £500 against £100 that Brown will beat Weston's best record of 550 miles.

A Bobtail Victory.

New York News.

Ritchason Buckbee, a poor hatter, sued the twenty-third street Railroad Company, in the Marine Court to-day, for $1,000 damages for injuries received by being thrown off one of their bobtail cars. His story was that he rang the bell to let him off at Fourth and Twelfth streets, that the car stopped an instant, and the driver immediately drove on. The plaintiff was thrown on his face in the street. His pants were ruined, his knees scalped, from which injuries he has not yet recovered. He received an offer of thirty dollars from the defendants to settle it, but would not accept it.

The company's defense was that the plaintiff did not ring the bell that the car was on a curve at the time, and could not stop. The jury found for the company, and as the plaintiff sued in forma pauperis, it had to go without its fee.

Look Sharp! Mr. Edison!

London World.

The experiments in electric lighting on Professor Andre's system made recently at Stafford House have been so successful that it is probable the mansion will be permanently lighted by electricity on the Duke's return from Egypt. The Prince of Wales, Sir Frederick Leighton, and other gentlemen connected with the art and science were present at the experiments.

In San Francisco, Thank Fortune.

New York World, 18th.

Weston and O'Leary agreed yesterday upon the terms of a six-day walk. O'Leary insisted that an American city should be chosen, and Weston in getting as far away from New York as possible, because, as he says, "The people here don't know how to appreciate a good walker, and the man who has done more work than all these upstarts put together." So they pitched on San Francisco, and hired by telegraph a hall for the second week in March.

Wake Superior Court.

Parker vs Bledsoe, et al. Continued for the defendant upon the payment of cost for this term.

The last named case having finished the calendar for the day, court adjourned until this morning at ten o'clock.

The Rise in Paper.

Print-paper continues to rise in price. They say everything has an ending, but we fail to see where this thing is to end.

We quite agree with that excellent journal, the Atlanta Constitution, in thinking that the Southern press and people should urge upon their representatives in Congress to use their influence in having the duty on printpaper, and the chemicals used in its manufacture, removed.

A RADICAL ROW.

A PRETTY CLOSE CALL FOR SENATOR CONKLING.

He Goes to the New York State Convention as a Delegate by Only One Majority.

UTICA, N. Y., Feb. 18.—The Republicans of the First District of Oneida County held a convention yesterday to choose delegates to the State Convention. The proceedings were marked by the exhibition of much bad feeling between the rival factions of the party. Ellis H. Roberts, of the Utica Herald, and ex-Senator Lowrey led the opposition to Conkling, and the old-time animosities culminated in such a row as has never before been witnessed here. The fight began last week when the ward and town caucuses were held. At these great bitterness was manifested. Every ward in Utica with one exception, was a battle-ground. In the Eighth Ward the delegate was understood to be unpledged. He was chosen by acclamation. So close was the struggle between Senator Conkling's friends and enemies that the vote of the unpledged delegate was required to turn the tide of battle. His vote was needed by the stalwarts in order that Roscoe Conkling might go to the State Convention. Mr. Conkling's friends here were equal to the emergency, and to-day before the convention assembled it was privately understood that the Senator would achieve another triumph.

The anti-third termers are very strong here, and go into the convention, bodily declaring that they would fight before they would be bulldozed. When the opportunity for fighting came they improved it. Deputy Attorney-General Everett called the convention to order and nominated General Grindlay for Chairman, but before a vote could be taken District Attorney, Daly, and anti Conkling man, was nominated and great confusion ensued. Mr. Daly and Mr. Grindlay were chosen simultaneously by the rival factions, and a fight with fists ensued. Daly rushed upon Attorney-General Everett and violently forced him from the reporters' table. At this De egate Powers, a Conkling man and semi-the pugilist, made an attack on Mr. Daly and blows were exchanged in the highest style of the art. Intense excitement prevailed, and it was not until ex-Policeman Bolles, a seven-footer, took a hand in it that the fighting was stopped. District-Attorney Daly and General Grindlay had a lively war of words, after which another small riot took place. The rival chairmen continued to wrangle and the clashing continued with unabated fervor. An unsuccessful effort was made to clear the room of outsiders, and after more bear garden antics a delegate mounted the table and proposed the delegation headed by Roscoe Conkling. This was followed by a storm of cheers and hisses, while General Grindlay called the roll. Ten of the delegates—a majority—voted for Mr. Conkling and adjourned. The count was made with difficulty, owing to the confusion and the fact that no secretary had been named. Taking advantage of this fact Mr. Conkling's enemies organized a second convention, elected a delegation headed by Senator Lowrey and adopted the following:

"Resolved, That we repeat earnestly the declaration of the New York Republican State Convention of 1876 of 'unalterable opposition to the election of any President for a third term,' and instruct our delegates to the convention to be held on the 25th instant to enforce the principal in every honorable way."

No resolutions of any kind were adopted by Mr. Conkling's Convention.

An appeal will be made to the State Convention.

To-day Charles H. Hopkins, who has been Mr. Conkling's Utica Postmaster for over eighteen years, gave place to Mr. Erastus Clark, whose appointment was wrung from President Hayes by Mr. Roberts, of the Herald. Senator Conkling construes this as a direct insult. It is believed that Mr. Conkling could have prevented Mr. Clarke's nomination, but he took no steps in the matter, saying, "I have not yet asked a favor of the Administration and I don't propose to."

How Ben Butler Missed Being President.

St. Louis Times (Correspondence).

"Blaine is a man of fine presence, genial, and if he will hold the tail of the kite he can do so, I have no doubt. The recent charming little party at Harrisburg would seem to point that road. By the way, Mr. Lincoln did me the honor to ask me to take the second place on the ticket with him in 1861. I replied that I was only about forty years old and did not desire to shut myself up in the sarcophagus of the Senate desk. I also jocularly, but most prophetically, avowed that I would accept his offer, provided he gave bonds to die three months after his inauguration."

"Prophetic, indeed!"

"Yes, the joke came back to me with intensest sadness."

There was no smile on the face now. The eyelids looped to their lowest as he almost savagely jerked the ashes from his cigar.

"Have you no belief in a Democratic victory, General?"

"No! The Democrats haven't the faintest hope of success."

"Not with Tilden, or Bayard, or Seymour?"

"Not with any body," said the General, emphatically. "Grant will go in with a whirl. The Tammany quarrel is fatal to reconciliation with Tilden."

We smiled a sickly smile of doubt of this; we didn't make the smile showy, for we were in the lion's den, and we hadn't the advantage even of Daniel's gingham umbrella for protection.

"Mr. Payne's name is mentioned as the dark horse."

"I know him," said the General, quickly—"Henry B. Payne, of Cleveland. A good man; a hard-money man, but not offensively so. One of the Electoral Commission. If a Democrat were to be elected there is no one, perhaps, I would rather see achieve the honor than Payne. A good, fair man."

STATE NEWS.

[Correspondence under this head is furnished by regular contributors to the NEWS.]

FORSYTH.

WINSTON, Feb. 17.—The weather is now fair, cool and pleasant.

Business is quite brisk, and breaks in the warehouse are large and prices good. To-day the breaks were enormous.

In our last, speaking of the changes and progress of business, we stated, on what we considered good authority, that the new hardware store would be run under the same name with the firm of Prayther & Co., but from the large and showy sign projecting from the front of their new store, we see that the name of Brown & Vaughn is still retained.

At some future time we will give your readers a full discription of this new building which will be, when completed, one of the best and most admirably constructed buildings in the State. Indeed, visitors from the large northern cities have repeatedly asserted that this structure would appear favorably in any of their cities.

The building furor still booms loudly. Mr. H. E. McIver, one of our prominent builders and contractors, informed us this evening that he had "twelve contracts on hand now."

Inferior court continued during the entire week, and quite a number of cases were disposed of. Page Hamlin (colored) was convicted of barn-burning, and sentenced to 5 years imprisonment in the penitentiary.

A very amusing case occurred Saturday. One darkie was tried for stealing a pair of shoes from another, and even admitted privately the same; and employed a counsel only through the hope of mitigation, yet was not convicted, and his council claimed that the shoes, which had been brought in for identification, should be given to the acquitted negro, to which the opposite attorney strongly objected, and they "tugged' hard and heavy."

A MAN LYNCHED IN YADKIN!

Last Tuesday night Messrs. J. D. Hicks, Henry J. Faison, Rufus Hicks, E. J. Hill and Mr. E Summerel, of Faison, arrived in Winston and took quarters in the Central, having in charge a gent whom they were conducting to the aforesaid county to lynch.

After enjoying the pleasant company of these genial custodians, late from that classic little village of Faison, we visited the room of the prisoner, to give you the last "voice and testament" of one so near his last days—of single blessedness—and, strange to say, found the victim as gay and jolly as a marriage bell.

In good time Thursday, they moved out in private conveyance and at 7 o'clock, p. m., right here in peace-loving, law-abiding and law-enforcing North Caroiina, these inexorable gents, aided by a minister of the gospel, did lynch Mr. John W. Pass, of Faison, and at the same time Miss Hattie Lynch, a fair and fascinating young lady, passed in her check of single blessedness, and hymen enrolled another happy bond on the register of congenial felicity. The happy couple took the train here Friday evening for an extended northern tour, while the heartless young men—they left their hearts in Winston, made their way back to Faison in various directions, doubtless hoping that a similar fate may some day be theirs.

So mote it be!

Saturday evening the Salem Amateur Cornet Band, composed of juveniles not exceeding 13 or 14 years of age, paraded our streets, discoursing sweet music at every street crossing. They performed splendidly for boys of their age, and elicited many compliments. They gave an oyster supper that night in the Vogler building, for the benefit of their company, and realized handsomely we are informed.

A son of Mr. T. F. Williamston, a prominent tobacco manufacturer of Reidsville, and brother of our accomplished and beautiful townslady, Mrs. A. F. Benton, is a student in the Winston Male Academy.

Rev. Mr. Page, the present and resent minister of the M. E. Church here, is edifying and electrifying not only his congregation, but the town generally, with his eloquence and forensic effort.

Rev. Mr. Roudthalor, of the Moravian Church is delivering a serious of lectures styled "Scenes in Europe," which win for him many encomiums.

The book agents are becoming numerous, and if they continue to increase, we will have to get up a petition and send for Tom Shanter, or Mr. Mosely and the "Tycoon" oil.

LENOIR.

KINGSTON, Feb. 16.—The weather is very warm and windy. The Neuse is higher than it has been in several months. Trade is tolerable fair for this time of the year.

Mrs. Margaret Webb, wife of Rev. James B. Webb, died Saturday the 14th, aged fifty-seven.

A good many shad are being caught, they sell at seventy-five cents per pair.

A Mrs. Lee, living about five miles from town, was so badly burned while burning brush in her garden, on the 11th instant, that she died that night.

There will be a soiree at Loftin's Hall, Thursday evening, February 19th. The managers are: J P Haskitt, S W Chadwick, Geo H Herring, Jesse H Hill and Charles B Woodley. H.

A Fiddler Killed With a Bass Viol.

CONCORD, N. C., Feb. 17—Amos Sweet, known as the county fiddler, was killed in Springfield, near this place, to-night. It seems that early in the evening Sweet was engaged to play at a dance. At about 9 o'clock he got so full of whisky that he could not play in time, and he was turned out and another fiddler put in his place. In a few minutes he returned and demanded his fiddle. He was hustled out of the ball room, but came back again. He reeled against Bob Turnstill, a young swell, who was so aggravated that he took up the bass viol and dealt Sweet a blow over the head with it, crushing in his skull just above the ear, from the effects of which he died at 10 o'clock to-night. The room was crowded with dancers, and the dreadful affair broke up the ball. Turnstill has been arrested

Dogs in Deadly Combat.

Early on Monday morning the residents in the vicinity of Pearsall avenue Greenville, N. J., were awakened by a noise of a battle in the street. Springing from their beds and opening their windows, they beheld about a score of dogs in deadly combat, biting, howling and springing from side to side. No one dared to interfere, and the battle lasted for some time. At day-break a party went to the battle-field. They found the surface of the ground scratched up for a space of about twenty-five feet, and covered with blood. Three dead dogs lay on the field.

The Rise in Paper.

Owing to the remarkable increase in the price of printing paper, the proprietors of newspapers in New Orleans held a meeting on Tuesday and resolved to ask the Louisiana Representatives in Congress to use their influence to have the duty on printing paper, chemicals and materials used in the manufacture thereof removed or materially reduced.

CONGRESSIONAL CAPERS.

YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS OF THE 46TH CONGRESS.

All About What the Senate and House Did Yesterday as Telegraphed The Daily News.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., February 19.—Senator Jones, of Florida, from the committee on Public Buildings and Grounds, reported with an amendment the bill to provide for the purchase of a site and the erection of a public building at Jacksonville, Fla. Placed on the calendar.

Senator Butler, of South Carolina, introduced a bill to provide for the erection of a public building at Greenville, S. C. Referred.

The Senate by a vote of twenty-five to thirteen proceeded then to consider the motion of Senator Davis, of West Virginia, to reconsider the vote adopting the resolution for the appointment of a special committee on Inter-Oceanic Canal. Senator Davis explained his reasons for making the motion.

After considerable discussion the Senate, by yeas 29, nays 25, reconsidered the vote by which the resolution for the appointment of a special committee on the Inter-oceanic Canal had been adopted. The question then recurred on the adoption of the resolution.

Senator Conkling thought the subject of the Inter-oceanic Canal should be referred to the committee on Foreign Relations.

Senator Bayard thought the Senate never had before it a question which more justly demanded the appointment of a special committee than this one.

The morning hour having expired, the Senate resumed consideration of the five per cent. military land warrants bill.

Senator Morrill opposed the bill.

Senator Morgan, of Alabama, expressed the wish that the bill might be postponed until next session; that as far as he could learn it would give Alabama about $80,000, and take from her by taxation about $100,000. She was not, therefore, greatly interested either way. He thought the subject should go to the courts, and not be acted on by Congress. In his further remarks, Senator Morgan said, for ten years after the war Congress had suspended all the public land laws (except those permitting homestead entries) in Alabama and four other Southern States. If this bill were to pass it should include the provision compensating Alabama for what she thus lost by being deprived of the locations on land warrants. He did not, however, believe that the enabling acts contemplated was what was insisted on in this bill.

At 4:15 o'clock the Senate went into Executive Session, and when the doors were reopened, adjourned until to-morrow.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Mr. Bland, of Missouri, from the Committe on Coinage, Weights and Measures, reported a bill to establish a mint at St. Louis; printed and recommitted.

Mr. Blackburn, of Kentucky, endeavored to dispense with the morning hour, so as to proceed immediately with the consideration of rules, but was unable to obtain the necessary two-thirds vote, and the House resumed in the morning hour the consideration of bill regulating removal of causes from State to Federal Courts.

Mr. Herbert, of Alabama, made a long legal argument in support of the bill, but at the expiration of the morning hour it went over without action.

The House, in Committee of the Whole, resumed the debate upon the revision of the rules.

Mr. Stephens, of Georgia, asked leave to address the House for ten minutes.

Mr. Blackburn objected, on the ground that it was not competent for the Committee to extend the time for debate.

Mr. Conger moved that the Committee rise and then the House could go into Committee of the Whole on the state of the union, in order to give Mr. Stephens an opportunity to speak, which was agreed to.

Mr. Stephens then addressed the House in opposition to the twenty-first rule, saying that he did not believe that according to the Democratic doctrine of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, it was ever intended that appropriation bills should be encumbered with outside legislation.

If there had been any progress in the legislation in the country it had been in excluding from the appropriation bills other matters as riders.

He repudiated the so-called democratic doctrine that it is proper to seek redress of grievance by withholding appropriations. It had never been the democratic doctrine. It was monarchial doctrine. New doctrines of making war on the veto power through the means of appropriation bills was not Democratic, was not Republican, and was anti-Constitutional.

He had opposed it during the extra session last year. He opposed it now and should always oppose it.

At the conclusion of Mr. Stephen's remarks the House again went into committee on revised rules and finally adopted in place of clause three and all previous amendments a substitute offered by Mr. Morrison, of Illinois, to the effect that no provision of any appropriation bill or amendment thereto changing existing law shall be in order except such as being germane to the subject matter of bill shall retrench expenditures.

This substitue was adopted by 123 to 95 amid applause on the Democratic side. Several other amendments to this clause were offered, but were voted down, and its consideration brought to a close by the adoption of Mr. Morrison's substitute. At 4:45 House adjourned.

Still At It.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—The Senate in executive session to-day refused the nomination of Henry R. Gibson to be Supervisor of Census for the first district of Tennessee.

Supreme Court.

Court opened at 10 o'clock yesterday morning. All the justices were present.

The consideration of appeals from the Sixth Judicial District was resumed, and causes were disposed of as follows:

Eli Pasour vs. Jonathan Rhyne, from Gaston; argued by Jones & Johnston and Merrimon, Fuller & Fuller for the plaintiff, and J. H. Wilson & Son for the defendant.

Jonas Hoffman vs. J. O. Moore et als, from Gaston; argued by Hoke & Hoke for the plaintiff, and W P Bynum and J. H. Wilson & Son for the defendants.

Court adjourned, pending the argument in the last named case, until 10 o'clock this (Friday) morning, when the consideration of appeals from the Sixth Judicial District will be resumed.

THE FRANCHISE IN IRELAND.

Rejecting a Motion to Make it Equal With that in England and Scotland.

LONDON, Feb. 17.—In the House of Commons to-night Mr. Meldon (Home Rule, Kildare County) introduced a motion in favor of the equalization of the franchise in Ireland with that in England and Scotland. He said the existing inequality was a distinct breach of the act of union. Mr. Gray (Home Rule, Tipperary) seconded the motion.

Mr. Charles Lewis (Conservative, Londonderry city) moved an amendment that it is inexpedient to deal with the question. In the course of his speech he charged Mr. Parnell with inciting people to break the law.

The Speaker called Mr. Lewis to order.

Resuming his remarks, Mr. Lewis said the House knew his meaning. Home rule, once a harmless snake, was now a poisonous serpent. The House ought to hesitate before granting an extension of suffrage among a class holding Home Rule views.

Mr. Justin McCarthy (Home Rule, Longford county) supported Mr. Meldon's motion.

Sir William Harcourt declared that the motion only set forth the principle of equality on which the union of the two countries was based. When that ceased to be the principle, he would cease to be in favor of the union.

Mr. Gibson, Attorney-General for Ireland, sought to show that it was impossible to deal with the franchise before legislation was had on the redistribution of seats.

Mr. John Bright supported the motion. He pointed to the treatment of Ireland in other matters. He said the Chief Secretaryship was held by a man who was steeped with Tory prejudices against freedom.

Mr. Meldon's motion was finally rejected by a vote of 142 to 198.

National Capitol Votes.

Senator Kernan's bill recognizing the New York exposition of 1883, and providing that articles for exhibition only should be admitted free of duty, will be favorably reported.

Senator Conklin says that he shall not attend the Utica Convention next week unless he is selected as a delegate. He says there is not the slightest doubt in the world that the convention will indorse Grant.

The House Military Committee have agreed to the joint resolution authorizing the Secretary of war to loan tents, flags, etcs., to the committee of Knights Templars for the Triennial Convention at Chicago.

An intimate friend of Gen. Butler denies that Butler will support Gen. Grant for the Presidency. He says that Butler declares positively that he will support none but a soft-money candidate for the Presidency.

The House committee on Public Buildings and Grounds have decided to allow Mr. Bliss' resolution to grant the use of the National Museum in this city for holding a National Democratic Convention to lie on the table for the present.

The Hero From Deadwood.

Free Press.

The hero from Deadwood does not have half a show in Detroit, and he cannot be blamed for feeling that we are an unappreciative people. These heroes arrive here about once in four weeks on the average, and the latest put in an appearance yesterday morning, preceded by the rumor that he had struck it rich and made a clean hundred thousand dollars. When he entered a drug store on Michigan avenue he was followed by a dozen or more persons, who wanted to admire him and hear the story of his adventures. He modestly hesitated to begin, as all these Deadwood heroes do, but he finally started off with:

"It is, perhaps, useless to remark that Detroit offered no chance for an ambitious young man to get along."

"That's so," replied one of his hearers. "I know you did not get along here at all, and we had to make up a shake-purse when your poor old father died!"

The hero swallowed something, bent his eyes modestly on the floor, and continued:

"I left this city with only $10 in my pocket, but with a heart ——"

"Only $10, and I know it, for I lent you five of that, and never expected to see it again," interrupted a second admirer with a good deal of heartiness.

A shadow of pain flitted across the face of the hero, but he braced up and went on:

"When I reached Deadwood I was penniless, hungry, ragged and friendless, but I was stout-hearted. I was d——."

A saloon-keeper here entered and begged pardon for the intrusion, but he had made out the hero's liquor bill and thought it best to hand it to him before he had banked his money. It was only $13, but some of the items were over three years old, and business was business. The hero put the bill in his pocket, passed through a fit of coughing, and began:

"I provided myself with mining tools and ——"

"Did you get trusted or pay cash for them?" interrupted the man on the other side of the store.

The hero did not deign to reply, but spit into the stove, wiped off his mouth and said:

"I knew that energy and pluck would bring luck. Here at home everybody seemed to keep me down, but there ——."

"Say, I didn't try to keep you down," suddenly observed a shoemaker. "Didn't I trust you for a pair of boots when no one else would, and didn't I raise the money to pay your fine and saved you a trip to the House of Correction?"

The hero partially admitted the correction, and had just opened his mouth to go on when the druggist asked him to wait until he could put up ten cents' worth of castor oil for a customer. The hero waited, and when the oil had been put up he continued:

"I knew I had only myself to depend on, and that fact nerved me up. I pushed for the mines ——."

"Is that a dog fight?" interrupted one of his hearers as a furious growling was heard out doors.

All rushed to the door, but it was a false alarm, and after they had returned to the stove the hero settled himself back and remarked:

"Here in Detroit energy, pluck and ambition counted for nothing. If I tried to claim ——"

"And while I think of it," put in the grocer two doors below, "I'll hand you the account run up by your mother in your absence. I never expected it would be paid, but I couldn't see the old lady go to the poor house!"

It took some little time for the hero to get another start, and he had not yet reached the mines when in came a constable, who asked him to step out doors, and after an earnest conversation he walked off in his company.

Married.

At Greensboro at 7 o'clock a. m. February 19th, at the residence of Colonel John N. Staples by the Rev. T. M Jones, D. D., Mr. W. W. Fuller, of Raleigh, to Annie Margaret, youngest daughter of the late Dr. H. H. Staples.

PECULIAR PHENOMENON.

A HEAD SIX TIMES THE ORDINARY SIZE.

A Man Whose Head is so Heavy That He Cannot Stand Up Under It.

New York Sun,

A most remarkable specimen of man, after existing for many years in the wilds of Jersey, unknown to the outside world, has been brought to this city and may now be seen at a saloon on Walnut street. Ever since his birth he has been unable to stand upon his feet, on account of the weight of his head, which is of abnormal size. For 28 years, the length of his life, he has been compelled to lie abed continually. His name is Charles Elling and he was born in Burlington county, New Jersey. He lacks one inch of being five feet in length, but would probably have grown longer had he been in the habit of taking physical exercise. His head appears to be about six times the ordinary size and his mother says he has always been as disproportionate in weight to the rest of his body as it is now.

The measurement around the head at the middle of the forehead is thirty-three inches, while the line passing over the crown and under the chin is forty-four inches. Of course the head could never be weighed accurately, but its estimated weight at present is eighty pounds, which is two-fifth of his entire weight. The inner corners of the eyes are four inches apart, the distance from temple to temple is thirteen inches, and the bridge of the nose is six inches below the upper line of the forehead.

If it were a case of hydrocephalus it would doubtless be less remarkable, but there is every physical evidence in support of statements made by several physicians that it is neither more nor less than an abnormal growth of skull and brain. The head is solid, and its parts nearly proportionate except the forehead, which in both height and breadth measures about one and a half times as much as it would if symmetrical with the other parts of the even so abnormally large a head. The trunk of the body is about the same in size as that of many a big fat boy who walks the streets, but the muscles are soft and weak for want of activity. The measurement around the chest is forty-four inches. His legs, however, are no thicker than those of an eight-year-old boy of ordinary size.

He extends his hand to visitors, bids them good day and chats with them in a childish manner. He seems to have an evenly balanced mind, but it is that of a prattling infant. He cannot read and never would try to learn the alphabet, as his neck, although no weaker than might be expected in a person who has always been confined to bed, was not strong enough to move his head without giving him pain. It is thought that he would not be so childish had he been accustomed to sights and sounds beyond the limits of a bed room, which few except his parents and their small number of Jersey neighbors ever entered. His parents have had no child but Charles. The father is dead, but the mother is with him here. Both parents were healthy, of ordinary stature, and possessed the average physical development. They were engaged in agricultural pursuits about two miles from the village of Bridgeborough, which is a league from Riverside, New Jersey. A notice of the case got into a rural newspaper not long ago, and this catching the eye of the proprietor of the saloon he sought out the humble homestead and arranged to have Charles kept at his place for exhibition.

An Old Hat.

Milton Chronicle.

We have a compositor employed in this office who wears the same hat he wore in the Confederate war. He and his hat were both wounded in the war, and being disabled from field service, he was put to printing Confederate money.

Gored to Death by a Bull.

A telegram from Delaware, Ohio, Feb. 17, says: Collins P. Eisbee, the oldest citizen, and one of the wealthiest farmers of Orange township, was gored to death by a bull last evening, one horn piercing the heart and the other breaking his neck. At the time of the attack he was engaged in feeding the animal. Mr. Eisbee came from Poughkeepsie, N. Y., in 1841, and was 80 years of age. To-day would have been the 55th anniversary of his marriage.

False Hair on a Horse.

London Times.

At a general meeting of the Highland and Agricultural Society held in Edinburgh on Wednesday, Mr. F. N. Menzies, Secretary, read a correspondence between himself and Mr. Riddell, farmer, of Blackhall, regarding the discovery of false hair on a prize Clydesdale mare exhibited at the society at Perth in July last. Certificates had been given by Principal Williams and Sir Alexander Muir Mackenzie to the effect that they had discovered the false hair. Mr. Riddell, on being communicated with by the Secretary, wrote a letter denying that hair had been placed on his filly's foreleg to his knowledge or that of his servants. The Secretary replied to Mr. Riddell on the 10th of December, as follows: "The directors have again had the case of false hair on your filly's legs, at Perth show before them. I am directed to intimate to you that they are not satisfied with your explanation, and that they have no doubt that false hair was fixed on to the filly's legs.

As, however, this was not discovered till after the judging, and as it is possible that the false hair may not have been inserted till after the judging was over, the directors, after long deliberation, have determined not to put the regulations of the general show in force against you on this occasion; but I am instructed to inform you that, should anything of the sort occur again, or any other of the society's regulations be contravened, you will be answerable, whether the breach of the rules has been the act of your servants or of others, so long as your animals are in the show yard, and that the regulations will be strictly adhered to. The chairman said that he was very sorry it should have been necessary to lay this correspondence before the meeting, and he quite concurred in what the directors thought right to do, because they gave Mr. Riddell the benefit of any doubt, but he thought it was absolutely necessary that exhibitors should understand that when anything was found wrong, and not straightforward they must be held responsible for the doings of those under their control.

Nerve

It is a great thing to have what is called nerve, and nothing contributes more to the power of physical control than named than Warner's Safe Nervine. It also relieves all kinds of pain, and cures headache and neuralgia.

DAILY NEWS

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1880.

GEO. C. JORDAN, Editor and Prop'r

Two Republican Conventions in Utica, New York, elected two sets of delegates to the State Convention Tuesday. One set is headed by Roscoe Conkling. The anti-Conkling, anti-Grant Convention readopted the declaration of "unalterable opposition to the election of any President for a third term" set forth by the Republican State Convention of 1876.

AFTER passing the bill making women eligible to hold school offices and vote for school officers in New York State, the Assembly discovers that the Constitution permits male citizens only to exercise the electoral franchise. Hence a reconsideration and an amendment of the bill. In order to square matters and punish the Constitution for playing such a prank, Mr. Alvord will propose an amendment to that instrument also.

THE New England papers are industriously working up a Presidential boom for Senator Edmunds. Leaving out Maine, which is conceded to Blaine, the other five New England States will have sixty-six delegates in the national convention. This is sufficient, Mr. Edmunds' friends urge, to make him a formidable candidate if the sixty-six will stick together. In the Cincinnati convention when Mr. Hayes entered the contest he had only the 44 votes of Ohio to back him, and then got the nomination on the seventh ballot. It will hardly be practicable at this late day to concentrate the votes of five New England States upon Mr. Edmunds. Senator Blaine has obtained a pretty strong hold in these States, and it is said that New Hampshire will be as solid for him as Maine. In Massachusetts the Grant men are making headway, and they are counting with some confidence upon securing the delegation from that State for their candidate.

WARNING WORDS OF WASHINGTON.

The attitude of the Hayes Administration toward the traditional foreign policy of this country makes the time ripe for recalling to the people that farewell address which the First President left them as his political testament and their legacy for all ages. Addressing his countrymen under the significant date "United States, Sept. 17, 1796," he employs the following language:

"Against the insidious wiles of foreign influence (I conjure you to believe me, fellow citizens) the jealousy of a free people ought to be constantly awake, since history and experience prove that foreign influence is one of the most baneful foes of Republican Government. * * * The great rule of conduct for us, in regard to foreign nations, is, in extending our commercial relations, to have with them as little political connection as possible. So far as we have already formed engagements, let them be fulfilled with perfect good faith. Here let us stop. * * * Why quit our own to stand on foreign ground? Why, by interweaving our destiny with that of any part of Europe, entangle our peace and prosperity in the toils of European ambition, rivalship, interest, humor, or caprice? It is our true policy to steer clear of permanent alliance with any portion of the foreign world * * constantly keeping in view that it is folly in one nation to look for disinterested favors from another; that it must pay, with a portion of its independence, for whatever it may accept under that character.

The fretting of modern American statesmen at the isolation of the United States from the world's politics, strongly contrasts with the spirit and counsel of Washington. That coveting of footholds in foreign lands which under Grant first sought to annex St. Thomas and then San Domingo, has already, under Hayes, successfully grasped the distant harbor of Pago Pago, in the Island of Samoa, and now seeks two more footholds on the borders of Costa Rica and Columbia, with the zone of land stretching across the Isthmus between them. With all these acquisitions come doubtful ownership, disputed jurisdictions, or threatened complications with other foreign powers that press in for footholds of their own close by."

Well did the forebodings of Washington teach him to moderate his hopes to only "some partial benefit, some occasional good," as the farewell address, so that his words might "now and then warn against the mischiefs of foreign intrigue." As to any greater effect, this was his reflection:

"In offering to you, my countrymen, these counsels of an old and affectionate friend, I dare not hope they will make the strong and lasting impressions I could wish; that they will control the usual current of the passions, or prevent our nation from running the course which has hitherto marked the destiny of nations."

In the itching to introduce the United States as a party to the international compacts of Europe; in the constant proffer of our country as an arbiter, with the responsibilities of an arbiter between foreign belligerents; in the rage for acquiring foreign islands and for establishing naval footholds on foreign coasts; in the threatening aspect of the interoceanic canal question, and in the apparent modern inability to so apply the Monroe doctrine that it will inspire respect instead of provocation, and be a safeguard of peace instead of a rock of offence, may be seen historic justifications for the fears and forebodings of Washington.

Welcoming de Lesseps.

New York Star, 18th.

A meeting of merchants engaged in the South American and West Coast trade, was held at the down town club rooms, to arrange for giving M. Ferdinand de Lesseps a suitable reception upon his arrival in this city on the steamship Colon on Monday next. Royal Phelps occupied the chair, and J M. Hurtado acted as Secretary Brief addresses were made by Messrs. Phelps, Hurtado, Riley and others on the importance of a coast canal. None of the speakers formally approved of the present or any particular scheme, but declared themselves to be in favor of a tide-level canal.

Resolutions were adopted expressive of admiration of the talent of M. de Lesseps as an engineer, extending him a cordial welcome to this country, and requesting the chairman to appoint a committee of five to meet him upon his arrival in New York on Monday, and to express to him the great interest that the merchants of the country feel in the construction of a canal across the Isthmus.

The chair appointed J. M. Hurtado, J. M. Munoz, B. De Castro, Capt. John Riley and R. H. Hoadley as the committee.

It is understood that a grand banquet will be given.

Western Un on vs. Burglar Alarm.

The case of the Western Union Telegraph Company against the Holmes Burglar Alarm Telegraph Company was decided in New York yesterday by Judge Blatchford, in the United States Circuit Court, in favor of the Western Union Telegraph Company. The decision fully sustains the Page patent on all the points at issue in the case.

Charles S. Prentice, of Toledo, O., went to Paris and thence to England to be treated for Bright's disease, and after the best physicians of both countries had done what they could for him, gave up in despair and returned to America to die. Here he received further treatment from other skillful physicians without benefit, and while "listlessly lingering in pain and anguish," he says, heard of the Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, took it, and was completely cured in a few weeks. He gives circumstantial details of his painful experience and astonishing cure, in a long letter to H. H. Warner & Co., which will be forwarded on application.

Maud had a fine figure, good face and pretty name. One should see her at a distance. When she began to talk, you realized that she never used SOZODONT. Her breath was unlike the breezes of Araby the blest.

In the treatment of Dyspepsia, Chlorosis, Anæmia, Nervous and Muscular Debility, Nervous and Sick Headache, Dysmenorrhœa, Menorrhagia, Amenorrhœa, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder and such like organic or functional disturbances, I know of no remedy upon which I can rely with more certainty of satisfactory results than the "Seven Springs Mass."
W. F BARR, M. D.,
Abingdon, Va.

I have found no one single remedy to yield such satisfactory results as the "Seven Springs Mass." In the treatment of Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa. Anamia, Chlorosis, and for Chronic Eczema, I find it invaluable, associated with appropriate topical treatment.
GEO. T. HARRISON, M. D.,
New York City.

From my experience with the "Iron and Alum Mass," I believe it will prove the best medicine we have in use, for chronic diseases.

For Dyspepsia, Ulcerations of the Throat, Inflammation of the Neck of the Bladder, Leucorrhœa, etc., the "Seven Springs Mass" seems to act with almost specific effect.
E. O. GRIGSBY,
DeView, Ark.

We could extend this list into the thousands with such testimonials from physicians from every State in the Union, but these are sufficient to indicate its application. The reputation of the remedy is too widely known to waste words upon its character. In ordering from druggists always mention Seven Springs Mass. Price $1 per package or six for $5, sent by mail, postpaid.

A Down-town Merchant.

Having passed several sleepless nights, disturbed by the agonies and cries of a suffering child, and becoming convinced that Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup was just the article needed, procured a supply for the child. On reaching home and acquainting his wife with what he had done, she refused to have it administered to the child, as she was strongly in favor of Homeopathy. That night the child passed in suffering, and the parents without sleep. Returning home the day following, the father found the baby still worse; and while contemplating another sleepless night, the mother stepped from the room to attend to some domestic duties, and left the father with the child. During her absence he administered a portion of the Soothing Syrup to the baby, and said nothing. That night all hands slept well, and the little fellow awoke in the morning bright and happy. The mother was delighted with the sudden and wonderful change, and although at first offended at the deception practiced upon her, has continued to use the Syrup, and suffering crying babies and restless nights have disappeared. A single trial of the Syrup never yet failed to relieve the baby, and overcome the prejudices of the mother. Sold by all Druggist at 25 cents a bottle.

A Paper for all classes of the People and in every Department of life.
Independent and Conservative.

THE SUN is conservative in politics, independent in tone and non-sectarian. Its proprietors point to the principles that have governed it in the past as a guarantee of its course in the future. On all subjects of public interest it will continue to express its opinions, according to its best judgment, with a view only to the promotion of the best interest of the public. All the freshest news, at home and abroad, excluding only that which is prurient or sensational, is given from day to day in its columns. In addition to what is furnished by the Associated Press and by the local reporters of The Sun, no expense is spared to keep its special correspondence, that from Europe as well as from the Pacific Coast, and from its Washington Bureau abreast of the times, and to supplement it, as occasion may require, at every other point to which the current of events give prominence.

The Financial and Commercial Reports of The Sun contain at all times full and trustworthy accounts of all movements and operations in the leading markets, as well as that of Baltimore, with special telegraph service from New York of the latest stock and other transactions; while its reports of the ruling prices of breadstuffs, provisions, and other leading articles of trade and commerce, will embrace the latest intelligence, both at home and abroad, of each day's doings, up to the hour of going to press.

As a Paper for the People, filled with the freshest and most varied news, The Sun has acquired a reputation which is not surpassed by any of its contemporaries, while its large circulation, not only locally, but in many of the States of the Union, makes it the most valuable medium for all classes of advertisers.

Cuticura

BLOOD AND SKIN HUMORS,

The Scourge of Mankind. Old Methods of Treatment and Remedies a Failure.

CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the Great Blood Purifier and Liver Stimulant, is the most searching, cleansing, and purifying agent of this country. It may be detected in the saliva, sweat, milk, blood, and urine in forty minutes after taking the first dose, showing that it has entered the circulation and been carried to every part of the system. It forever eradicates the virus of Syphilis, Scrofula, Cancer, and Canker, those terrible blood poisons that rot out the machinery of life, filling the body with foul corruptions. Taken internally in conjunction with the external application of CUTICURA, the Great Skin Cure, it speedily cures Scrofulous Ulcers and Old Sores, Salt Rheum, Psoriasis, Tetter, Ringworm Scald Head, Dandruff, and all Itching and Scaly Diseases of the Skin and Scalp.

ECZEMA ON THE SCALP.

BREAST AND LIMBS CURED.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen—I cannot refrain from adding my debt of gratitude to you for having placed within my reach the wonderful CUTICURA REMEDIES, which have rendered unnecessary all further experiment of physicians, and in a remarkably short space of time have rid me of a loathsome disease. I dispensed with all physicians two years ago believing they did me no good. The CUTICURA has stopped this unsatisfactory expense—even if it were necessary and I had the courage any longer to follow their advice—and brought the long-looked-for cure and happiness.

I have been afflicted with Eczema or Salt Rheum on my scalp, breast, and limbs for five years, during which time I have been under the treatment of physicians, or at mineral springs, or taking some kind of medicine. I have been treated by Drs of ——, Dr. —— of ——, and visited sulphur springs and taken numbers of patent medicines, all without the faintest approach to a cure.

April 1st last, I began the use of CUTICURA, which was immediately successful in my case, entirely curing me. I have not had a clean scalp for 15 years until the use of CUTICURA entirely healed it and left it clean and healthy. The other parts of my body were affected in a more aggravated form, but are now completely healed. I believe myself completely cured. I shall continue the CUTICURA RESOLVENT as directed, for its wonderful action on the stomach and bowels and cooling influence on the blood. It will afford me pleasure, as I have done in many cases, to urge the afflicted to use these wonderful remedies.

Yours, etc.,
STEPHEN CROWELL.
NEW BEDFORD, Sept. 30, 1878.

A RUNNING SORE

CURED IN ONE WEEK.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER:—Some three or four weeks ago I ordered a box of CUTICURA for a bad case of Salt Rheum. The back of one of my wife's hands was a running sore. In one week from the day it arrived her hand was well and has remained so up to to-day. E. P. DAGGETT.

MILFORD, ME., June 10, 1878.

NOTE.—Reader, don't you think these cures remarkable?

CUTICURA SOAP,

MEDICINAL AND TOILET,

is prepared from CUTICURA in a modified form, and is positively indispensable in the treatment of Skin and Scalp Diseases. We recommend it for the preservation of the skins of infants, for gentlemen who shave and are troubled with tender faces, for those who desire a clean and wholesome skin and scalp, and for all purposes of the toilet, bath and nursery. Its delightful and refreshing fragrance equals or surpasses the finest Parisian Soaps.

The CUTICURA REMEDIES are prepared by WEEKS & POTTER, Chemists and Druggists, 360 Washington street, Boston, and are for sale by all druggists. Price of CUTICURA, small boxes, 50 cents; large boxes, $1. RESOLVENT, $1 per bottle. CUTICURA SOAP, 25 cents. per cake; by mail, 30 cents; three cakes, 75 cents.

For Sale.

Notice.

By virtue of a mortgage in my hands for collection, I will offer for sale for cash, on Saturday the 14th day of February, 1880, at the hour of 12 o'clock, one House and lot in the city of Apex, the property of W S. Mann, adjoining the lands of A. W. Atkinsons and others to satisfy a mortgage in favor of Brinkley Barker, this the 14th day of January, 1880.

H. C. LASHLEE,

A Rare Chance for Investment.

Wishing to give my whole attention to the lumber trade, in which I am about to engage on a larger scale than ever before, I offer for sale on terms to suit the times the following valuable property in Cary:

I.

MY PLUG TOBACCO FACTORY, in a BRICK building 50x80 feet, 3 stories high, the lower story being two large storerooms. The Tobacco Machinery is new and has a capacity of manufacturing 1,000 lbs per day. The factory has been worked a year, and a good beginning for a trade has been made. The building and the machinery will be sold together, or separately to suit purchasers.

II.

GRAIN MILLS,

in a 3 story brick building, 28x40 feet. Two Wheat Mills and one Corn Mill, new and complete with a capacity for grinding 100 bushels of wheat and 100 bushels of corn a day, and can compete in quality of flour with any mills in the State. The mills have had a very large local patronage during the past year. They are driven by a 60 HORSE POWER STEAM ENGINE, improved, of the make of Talbott & Sons, Richmond.

Attached to the engine is also a 60 Saw COTTON GIN and power press, at a safe distance (about 100 feet) in a different lot. The engine has a brick smoke-stack 60 feet high, making the danger from fire the least possible and the rate of insurance very low.

III.

Several well built and handsome residences, with lots and gardens of about 1 acre to each dwelling. They are wooden buildings, 2 stories high, with from 5 to 7 rooms each, situated in desirable locations in the village.

Besides these, 4 one acre lots, with cottage buildings of 2 rooms.

TERMS: One third Cash; balance on reasonable time.

Lincke's Hall Last Night.

A good crowd was present last night to enjoy themselves, and at the same time aid the Irish sufferers. Quite a neat sum was realized, and the attendance was kept up till a late hour.

W. C. & A. B. Stronach.

This old and established firm appear in a brand new advertisment this morning. All know who the Stronach's are, and we can only direct attention to their annnouncement of the arrival of fresh groceries, enumerated in their advertisement. Their goods are fresh and nice and they sell as low as the lowest.

Marriage of Mr. W. W. Fuller.

Mr. W. W. Fuller, son of Colonel T. C. Fuller, and one of our most promising young attorneys, was yesterday married to Miss Annie Margaret Staples, of Greensboro, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. T. M. Jones, at the residence of Capt. J. N. Staples, the uncle of the bride, in the latter city.

The best wishes of their friends attend the happy couple.

Metropolitan Hall.

Remember that with to-night ends the series of entertainments given by the ladies of the Edenton Street Methodist Church. All who were present at the festival last evening greatly enjoyed themselves The tableaux and prologues were exceedingly well rendered; the singing excellent and the eatables delicious. Be sure and patronize the ladies to-night.

Raleigh as a Tobacco Market

The NEWS has repeatedly taken occasion to invite the attention of the capitalists and business men of Raleigh to the superior advantages this city possesses over the adjoining towns, that are now booming because of the traffic in the article, as a tobacco market. We cannot, for the life of us, conceive what our people are thinking of. Here we have load after load of the staple daily passing right by our noses to Durham or Henderson, "or some other seaport," simply because there is no market for it here. It does seem as though our people are possessed of no energy whatever.

It is true that one chewing tobacco manufactory has been recently established, but why not more—and smoking tobacco factories also?

These gentlemen—Messrs. Bingham & Wagstaff—are doing finely, and their establishment should be exclusively patronized by our dealers. They say that when they make a purchase from the planters, they invariably express themselves as highly pleased at the price paid them.

Stir up, ye business men, and put this thing through.

Metropolitan Hall Last Night.

The festival and entertainment at Metropolitan hall last night given by and under the auspices of the ladies of the Edenton Street Methodist Church was a decided success. A goodly number of our people were present throughout the evening, and all seemed to be enjoying themselves. We trust, and from appearances infer, that quite a neat sum was realized.

Remember that with to-night these entertainments end. If you have not attended them yet, don't miss this your last opportunity; those who were so fortunate as to be present upon previous evenings, we feel confident will go again to-night.

We'll Tell You To-morrow.

The Governor and Council will to-day hold a meeting in the Executive office. The Council is composed of the Treasurer, Auditor, Attorney-General, Secretary of State and Superintendant of Public Instruction.

Of course this meeting is called for the purpose of considering the practicability of convening the General Assembly in extraordinary session for the purpose of passing upon the proposition of the New York Syndicate, as made through Mr. Best, for the purchase of the Western North Carolina Railroad property.

Therefore, to our subscribers who are anxious to know whether the Legislature is to be convened or not, we say: "We'll tell you to-morrow." That is, of course, if the Council comes to any decision.

Andrews and Ferrall.

These popular young gentlemen make their announcement to the readers of the NEWS this morning. They have just returned from the North with a fresh and complete stock of heavy and fancy groceries, and invite a trial from the Raleigh public.

Although the firm is a new one, they are by no means inexperienced. Mr. Andrews for a number of years having been connected with one of our principal banks, and Mr. Ferrall an experienced grocery merchant These gentlemen are polite and obliging, and, possessing as they do, all the elements to make themselves popular with their customers, we predict for them a thriving and successful trade. Call on them, at 44 Fayetteville street, and give them a trial. You will be pleased with your purchases and at the manner in which you are treated.

The Fire Last Night.

At about eleven o'clock last night the alarm of fire was sounded from Metropolitan hall bell. The cause of the alarm was a fire on Salisbury street—the stables belonging to Dr. F. J. Haywood, Jr.

The Phoenix Chemical Co., was the first upon the scene and did some very efficient and timely service in saving the adjoining buildings. But for their timely arrival the office and kitchen on the premises of Mr. C. M. Busbee would undoubtedly have been burned.

The Victor's were on time as usual, and were, as they always are, indispensible The Rescue Steam Engine No. 1, for some cause, did not arrive as soon as it should, but soon after it did get a stream on there was little fire left. The fire was unquestionably the work of an incendiary. This stable was partly burned a short time since but was afterwards repaired. It was completly destroyed last night

A Popular and Satisfactory Remedy.

For several days the demand has been so great that it could not be supplied: but to-day Mrs. Nelson will have on hand a large quantity of CHEROKEE INDIAN COUGH CURE. It is the very thing for whooping cough, as well as all other coughs and cold on the lungs. It is as good for infants as adults, and everybody tells their neighbors about its healing and curative powers. Address through the postoffice, Raleigh

The Monarch of the South.

The leading brand of five cent cigars now in the market is to be had at M. Grausman's popular family grocery store in this city. Call for the "Monarch of the South," if you wish to enjoy a really excellent smoke at a small cost.

Revolutions Never go Backward.

This is especially true when they have genuine merit, such as is found in Patapsco Baking Powder. Housekeepers have only to try this Powder to prove the above motto of the truth of history. Patapsco Baking Powder will never go back on you. It is unormly good and economical.

THE NEW FRYER.

This useful invention meets a long-felt need for a more convenient method of removing Oysters, Potatoes, and other fried food, with greater quickness, and all at once, from the boiling fat in which they have been cooked, and allowing the fat to drain from them while they remain over the fire; thereby getting rid more certainly of the superfluous grease, the objection so often made of the unhealthiness of food cooked in the ordinary frying-pan is done away with.

By detaching the supporter, you have for omeletes and other things for which a drainer is not required, a deeper and better quality of frying-pan than has heretofore been made.
